In your house, office or hand, there are many sightings to be had of the modest fan. From handheld, folding and ceilings; fans are rarely given close examination.

In this issue, delve into the intimate lives of fans and see what's hidden behind those corporeal forms.

Each has their own personality and energy behind their demeanor. Respect their vulnerability, and understand that they are complex beings receiving viewer narrative projections. The narrative portrayed does not define the fan, and the fans are their own being.

With that in mind,

Strap in for a wild ride!

I'm Not Small

I'm A Big Girl!

There is an air of un-comfortability around discussing sexuality and kink. Often bringing feelings of shame or judgement when brought up in conversation. Having open discussions brings a healthier environment; encouraging sharing and greater awareness of safe practices. Be safe, consensual and find comfort in knowing that people are often happy to be helpful and share their knowledge. Relax with the playful humor of this book and see what creations are coming up next @yucansparkle on instagram.
